

Left Bank Economics Inc. (1994 – present)

- Left Bank makes economic analysis useful and intelligible to the non-economist. Its clients include international organisations, financial institutions, industry associations and publications.
- Tim has written for Report on Business, Canadian Business, Canadian Shareowner, National Post, SmallCapCenter.com, and Canadian On-Line Explorer (CANOE). Tim is also a contributing editor with MoneySense magazine and the author of its regular column, Practical Economics.
- Editorial work has concentrated on converting material written by experts into articles suitable for the lay reader or busy practitioner. Statistical work includes model building and econometric analysis.

Previous Work Experience

- CIBC (1988 – 1994) regional economist and deputy chief economist
  - Edited CIBC's major economic publication, Observations
  - Made presentations to senior executives and clients of Bank
  - Produced the Bank's regional analysis and forecasts
- DRI Canada (1984 – 1987) senior energy economist and product manager
  - Produced detailed analyses of Canada's oil, gas and electricity industries for corporate and public-sector clients
  - Managed three consultants
  - Developed econometric models for Alberta and Ontario economies
- Royal Bank of Canada (1980 – 1984) regional economist
- DRI Canada (1979 – 1980) regional economist

Education

- M.A. (Economics), Queen's University, Kingston, Canada, 1979
- B.A. (Economics), McGill University, Montreal, Canada, 1977

Other

- Director, Ayr Farmers Financial Services
- Winner, 2003 Rogers Publishing Award for Editorial Excellence

Left Bank Economics Inc.
894 Keg Lane (RR #2)
Paris, Ontario, Canada N3L 3E2

Voice: 519,442-3766
Fax: 519,442-5545
Email: lbe@sympatico.ca
Website: www3.sympatico.ca/lbe